Meditations at Twilight on Genesis Rabbi Melvin Granatstein

Meditations at Twilight on Genesis exposes readers to the striking insights of the great classical commentators on the Five Books of Moses, with acknowledgement of critical scholarship and modern philosophical thought. This book demonstrates the surprising moral and philosophical notions embedded in the plain meaning of the Scriptures, which are vital to Judaism. Readers familiar with the Bible will come away with a fresh perspective, while those less learned in biblical studies will discover a compelling introduction to the topic.
