The Trees With No Leaves: A Children's Story About The Beauty of Believing Greer Alexis Bacon
Deep in the Black Forest, lives a boy name Hans. Spending his summers gathering wood each season with his father for the coming winters in Germany. He learns of many folk tales about the forest while growing up. One always stood out in his mind, "The Trees With No Leaves". On Hans 18th year, his father suddenly becomes very ill leaving Hans to collect wood for the summer alone with his horse Steel Gray. An ordinary summer day in the forest is quickly changed with a terrible storm. Causing Hans to seek shelter but, what he finds is more beauty than anyone could ever imagine. The Trees With No Leaves is a story about the power of a child's heart . When no one else believed, a child's heart was willing to.
