Self-portraits have been created by man from ancient times through to the Middle Ages and beyond, for many different reasons and in many different forms.

Juliet Heslewood, art historian and author, brings together a compelling collection of forty artists' self-portraits, and tells the stories behind each one?"from Durer, Da Vinci and Rembrandt, to Van Gogh, Matisse and Kahlo. A fascinating combination of biographical anecdote and art history, here is a revealing look at the life of the artist.

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's soul or real their passion. They just do what the professor want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Myself: Portraits by 40 Great Artists can make you really feel more interested to read.
