THE HOUSE OF TUSK – a wild tale of awakening, where dreams are real and the past has a life of its own . . .

From the moment Jake Burton's smartphone is tossed down a drain and replaced with a chocolate éclair, his world is turned irrevocably upside down. A marmalade-crazy super-shaman hurls him through a portal into a labyrinth of worlds, where the greatest mystery is not the ancient power rising up to plunder human souls, but Jake himself. His past is forbidding. His destiny is daunting. The gap between them is vast yet it must be bridged. But can he commit the unthinkable? Can he unlock the riddle that holds the key? Or will he stumble into prophesied doom?

Pigeon spies, Scottish flying carpets and a fierce protectress of Mother Nature, all come together in a rollicking page-turner, where the mystical and mythical are interwoven with blinding flashes of humour.

The House of Tusk is Book One of Lanterns, an epic voyage through the inner-worlds, through the extremes of light and dark, of love and fear, to the point where they meet.
