Josephine Alta has it all...at least that's what everyone keeps telling her. The international pop star is fresh off a wildly successful tour, her songs top charts around the world, and she's recently received rave reviews for a small acting role she did just for fun. So why did she feel like something was missing? After one night of indescribable pleasure, she is reminded how isolated and lonely her life has become. But her dissatisfaction becomes fear after her home is burglarized and everything she owns destroyed. Colt Morgan hadn't been surprised to wake up to an empty bed, he hadn't been happy about it either. But, after years on the rodeo circuit, he knows how to pick himself up after a fall. Never one to give up on something he wants, Colt dusts off his bruised ego and wonders how to win Josie's heart. When he finds Josie hiding in his sister-in-law's old apartment, he's both thrilled and baffled. He may not know why she's there, but he knows she isn't going to let her go again. The Prairie Winds team joins forces with the Morgans to keep Josie safe, but it proves more difficult than anyone imagined. No matter how gilded the cage, it's still a prison...
