Pens for Peace Matthew Cannon

Pens for Peace is a collection of forty-nine essays examining aspects of peace from a variety of different viewpoints. The essays tackle the subject of 'peace' bringing practical experience to bear from prominent political figures, peace-keepers and people involved in peace-building organisations. Contributions include essays from Senator George Mitchell, First Minister David Trimble and Taoiseach Bertie Ahern. It is hoped that the publication will be a source of new ideas and a useful tool to stimulate debate, providing a snapshot of ideas and opinions on the notion of 'peace' at a specific point in time.
