Think and Grow Rich in Dentistry Kelly Brown

Over the last 36 years, dentistry, government regulations, employees and patients have all drastically changed. Naivety today comes with a very expensive price tag. One most dentists don't need to pay.

Over the years I have trained, mentored, associated and partnered with well over 100 dentists. I have birthed more solo dental practices than any other dentist in the world. It is my intent with this book to guide you around the pitfalls of going into private practice, save you time and money. I hope you use my experience and knowledge to build your wisdom and become a productive, profitable dental practitioner.
