Well All Right Then: A Sailing Novel Based on Actual Events Quinn Quade

In her Vancouver 25-foot sailboat, a young woman sets sail on a voyage to embrace what she believes to be the end of her life and discovers what might be the beginning. The story includes her actual sailing experiences; storms at sea, simpatico whales, inviting anchorages, navigation challenges, and fellow sailors who are both interesting and outrageous. These events are wrapped in a fictional glove of life's whimsy and intrigue. Finally she sails straight into an unforgettable human drama of rescue and survival.
