Women's Poetry of the 1930s: A Critical Anthology

Women's Poetry of the 1930s: A Critical Anthology

Where were the women of the so-called 'Auden Generation'? During this era of rapidly changing gender roles, social values and world politics, women produced a rich variety of poetry. But until now their work has largely been lost or ignored; in Women's Poetry of the 1930s Jane Dowson finally redresses the balance and recovers women's place in the literary history of the interwar years. This comprehensive and beautifully edited collection includes:

- *Previously uncollected poems by authors such as Winifred Holtby and Naomi Mitchison
- *Poems which are now out of print, such as those by Vita Sackville-West and Frances Cornford
- *Poems previously neglected by poets including Ann Ridler and Sylvia Townsend Warner
- *An extensive critical introduction and individual biographies of each poet

Poetry lovers, students and scholars alike will find Women's Poetry of the 1930s an invaluable resource and a collection to treasure.
