To be given a glimpse into the heart and soul of another person is a sacred gift of great proportions that one must never take for granted. Darryl Moore has invited us to take just such a peek as he has opened his life through the words which he has so beautifully and poetically penned on the pages of his book, Released. As you read his words, you will find yourself hungering to know more of the “story behind the story” that his poetry tells. As God has “released” Darryl from the penalty of sin and death, he is free now to live into his full potential as a child of the King, even as he wears the prison blues of incarceration, making his home behind prison bars.
