A Gift of God: My Path to Priesthood David Morrow Chamberlain

During the transforming years of the late 1960s and early 1970s, David Chamberlain and his fellow classmates at the Virginia Theological Seminary forged deep bonds with their faculty and with each other. As they wrestled with shifting social norms and made lasting memories, they deepened their understanding of God and began to understand what ministry was really about—all in the shadow of our nation's capital.
