Excerpt from Textile Raw Materials and Their Conversion Into Yarns: The Study of the Raw Materials and the Technology of the Spinning Process a Text-Book for Textile, Trade and Higher Technical Schools, as Also for Self-Instruction

I. The Study of Materials and the Technology of Spinning. II. The Technology of Weaving. III. The Technology of Dressing and Finishing.

The first of these subdivisions, the Study Of Materials and the Technology of Spinning, affords information on all the materials employed in the textile industry and allied branches, as well as on the mechanical appliances and processes used for converting the same into yarn.

The Technology of Weaving teaches of the appliances and processes directly employed in the production of fabrics from yarn, thread or thread-like material.
