TY sMOST HONOURABLE PRIVY COUNCIL My Lord, These Commentaries were written by the advice, and at the desire of, several learned persons, who repeatedly gave me their opinion that a Treatise, containing within a small space the most important doctrines and rules of the Roman Civil Law, clothed in an English garb, and rendered accessible even to persons unversed in legal science, would be in many ways useful and valuable. But to compose such a work was an undertaking so novel and difficult that I should scarcely have persevered in it but for certain fortunate circumstances, which materially assisted me. And among them I am in no slight degree indebted to the encouraging manner in which your Lordship was pleased to accept the Dedication of this book. For a work on the Civil Law to appear under the auspices of the Lord President of the Council, the Supreme Civil Law Court of the Empire, might well satisfy the wishes and surpass the hopes of its author. But above all I could desire nothing more fortunate than that my book should bear the name of a statesman engaged both by high office and by personal zeal in the general promotion of knowledge, and eminent as a patron, not only of art and letters, but of every branch of learning.
