"The Final Addendum" of "The Science of Time", and "The Satanic Calculator" takes a straight forward mathematical and scientific analysis of just what makes up a strange book, known the "Holy Bible", and the Creation of the Universe, both known, and held as mysterious to many. The approach to the Creation event with mathematical correlations in Bible observations, based on its accurate connection with real historical events, is derived by mathematical process and can be deemed as a scientific study with the "Math Of God" established, and then broken down accordingly. This study has no connection with any specific religion, nor should it be viewed as a reference to any given religion. The Bibles as interpreted by Saint Jerome and King James are subjected to in-depth analysis line by line to try to understand the unique mathematical definement contained therein. From this study of biblical mathematics, emerges "The Satanic Calculator". The calculator is also a computer program that allows anyone to solve the puzzle to interpret a bible code, or the numerical values of the letters in the one's whose name add to 666! In "The Final Addendum", the mathematical source code of the "Satanic Calculator" is established and anyone can find their own unique numerical "Sentient Energy Value Assignment" or "SEVA", simply by entering one's full name. In the case for men, one enters their first, middle, mother's maiden, and last names. For women, it has been seen a SEVA can be obtained with simply the first, middle, and last names; or a combination of first, middle, and husband's last name - or first, middle, last, and husbands names. Though the computer application makes this operation mindless, "The Final Addendum" demonstrates how this number can also be obtained very simply by hand, with or without the aid of the most basic handheld calculator. In "The Final Addendum" it can also be understood, through "The Holy Bible", the mathematical breakdown of "time" beginning with the creation of the universe to its total collapse. The events of history contained therein including the beginning and the end of the concept of time. This being the first of a series of books starts at the beginning. "The Final Addendum" establishes the foundation for the mathematical understanding of God and of all mankind as unique individuals and all very much true and real. Presented in it are photographs of man's soul given temporary visible re-assignment in matter / energy conversions, where the soul is made visible through the available mass/matter of the flower. It can be understood that the soul continues after death awaiting the "Judgement Day of God Almighty", to be re-assigned a form that will never die. This soul in its new form will either reside with God and Jesus Christ in the "Holy City, the new Jerusalem", or be cast to their doom in the "Lake of Fire" at the event of the "Second Death". Revelation 21:6 "It is finished! I am the A and the Z - the Beginning and the End." God as the creator of all that is and all humanity are each given time and placement as defined in the code structure established by the Holy Bible, and relative to man's existence and activity through all time as well - as in the 21st Century.
