It was a time when the Roman Empire flourished and Pontius Pilate stood as the Roman Governor of Palestine. In this setting, Jesus, a Carpenter from Nazareth, began his ministry. He was the driving force behind a new way of looking at a person's place in the world. This is the story of Jesus, and those that were with him, as told by Andrew, one who walked and talked with Christ. Andrew tells a caravan led by the trader, Ibrahim, with his sons Joshua and Micah, who are traveling between Damascus and Cairo, about the humble beginnings of the Carpenter's Son, and His ministry. Enjoy the many experiences of Andrew as he shares his point of view of when he walked with Christ.
