"I was playing in my grandmother's garden after a summer shower. A rainbow touched the ground and two angels dressed in white appeared. They took my hands and we went into the rainbow and upward through a path of light...."

So begins one of the dozens of true stories of childhood experiences with angels that have been brought together in this extraordinary book.

A Philadelphia woman tells of her early encounter with a healing angel, whom she was to meet again many years later. A former racketeer describes how an angel helped him save his daughter's life by radically transforming his own. A family recalls the angel who brought them warm blankets and money one cold, hungry Christmas. There are accounts of dramatic rescues, near-death experiences, angelic voices, seraphic music, visions of light, angels who protect children from the powers of darkness, and much more.

Drawing on decades of research and their own very special spiritual experiences, authors Brad and Sherry Steiger provide heartwarming testimony to the special relationship that exists between children and the luminous beings who guide, protect, and comfort them.
