Six Figures is one of those rare books that grabs you from deep within and doesn't let you go until the last page. Even then, you're left with the incredible craving for more -- more real life stories of love, friendship, laughter, learning, tears and inspiration.

Meet Bad Girls -- Gina, Lauri, Nicki, Susan, Barbara and Lee -- six professional women, all from different states, backgrounds and age groups who come together in an accidental meeting at a business conference in Minnesota. Take a trip with them down memory lane as they each take turns retelling their version of the blossoming of a wonderful friendship that has weathered the years of life's greatest up's, downs and in-betweens.

Prepare to find yourself laughing out loud and reaching for the tissue box while rethinking your own life and searching to reconnect with your long lost girlfriends! This is truly an inspiring real story about six women on a journey to find success, themselves and each other in the process! Definitely a MUST READ!
