After finally giving in and taking the plunge, Jarod immediately starts to change his life. When he decides to take a new career upon himself and go into ballet, he thinks everything is great. Plus, he's got the support of his two lovers at hand, so everything seems to be going swimmingly. But, when his parents find out he sold the company, Jarod is told he's supposed to go to a meeting, and from that point on, the tensions of the past rear their ugly head, and Jarod knows the only thing he can do at this point is to stand up for himself. Will Jarod finally reach his dreams and be able to live his life in his own way? Or will his parents keep him on a short leash despite him being an adult. And what will they say about him dating two men? Find out in the thrilling conclusion to this book series.
