Sadie was left all alone in the world after Granny died. On top of dealing with her grandmother's death, she must sell the house she grew up in to pay off the mortgage. Luckily a buyer shows up in no time, and Sadie is even hired by the new owner as a housekeeper and allowed to continue living in the house. But it is too soon to celebrate—the new owner shows up a few days later, throwing Sadie into a pit of insecurity. This tall, rich, attractive man had assumed Sadie was older. He is sick of women trying to take advantage of him, and he fears the youthful Sadie will be no different. Will these two be able to live under the same roof together?
