Set in Kabul, this play examines current day Afghanistan, its history, its long long-tortured relationship with the West and its current complex political and humanitarian crisis. As the story unfolds the Homebody, a bored, emotionally imprisoned but wildly intellectual English woman, finds refuge and escape in the alternate world Afghanistan, which she exoticizes in her mind's eye with the help of an out-of-date tourist guide book. Her mysterious disappearance prompts an ensuing search by her ineffectual husband and her emotionally detached daughter, who arrive in the foreign land unprepared for the adventures that await them. In their quest for truth and closure the lines between the real and the unreal, the political and the personal, the public and the private, the psychological and the sociological are intentionally blurred and artfully ambiguous. As in his previous work, Kushner's ability to provoke, entertain, reinvent and reconstitute language is nothing short of astonishing; with Homebody/Kabul, Kushner reaffirms his status as one of the most important and dynamic contemporary dramatists in the world.

Tony Kushner has won the Pulitzer Prize and Tony Award for Angels in America, which will be filmed for HBO by Mike Nichols from a teleplay by the author. His other plays include A Bright Room Called Day and Slavs!, as well as adaptations of The Illusion, The Dybbuk, The Good Person of Szechuan and Stella. He is currently at work on two operas, a new play and a screenplay.

Maria Lamotte:

That reserve can make you feel relaxed. That book Homebody/Kabul was brightly colored and of course has pictures on the website. As we know that book Homebody/Kabul has many kinds or types. Start from kids until teens. For example Naruto or Private Investigator Conan you can read and think you are the character on there. Therefore not all of the books usually make you bored, any it offers you feel happy, fun and relaxed. Try to choose the best book for you personally and try to like reading in which.

Donald Lee:

As a college student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or even make a summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart or real their leisure activity. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore, this Homebody/Kabul can make you feel more interested to read.
