Samantha Jacobs is ready to move on with her life. Easier said than done when her ex tried to burn her alive and left her with vicious scars as a reminder of how wrong love can go. With Alan serving hard time, Sam is free to pursue her bliss. She has her Vegas bar, the Lucky 21, her business partner and best friend and a sexy new neighbor who never shuts his bedroom blinds. Detective Trevor Harrison is used to following his instincts. His gut tells him Sam is still in danger from her monster of an ex. Intending to keep watch over her from a distance, Trevor is totally unprepared when Samantha tells him she's been watching him too. Can he maintain the necessary distance to protect the woman of his dreams or will he give in to sexual temptation hotter than even the desert sun?
