Every Eye Shall See: A Biblical View of Christ's Return Gary L. Matthews

"Behold, He cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see Him." (Revelation 1:7) This promise has for 2,000 years kept alive Christian anticipation for the Second Coming of Christ. As a lifelong believer in the Bible, Gary L. Matthews asks certain obvious questions: How can literal eyes see a physical body appearing amidst material clouds? Could this paradox imply that the promised clouds may be spiritual, rather than material? Might they not be "clouds" of confusion, mystery and misunderstanding that veil Christ's reappearance so He is spiritually "seen" by all yet recognized - at first - only by those willing to surrender long-held preconceptions? In this book, Matthews explores biblical evidence from the perspective of the Baha'i Faith. Following that evidence to its logical conclusion, he poses yet another startling question: Is it possible that the Second Coming has already taken place?
