Invisible: Esthetic Ceramic Restorations Sidney Kina, August Bruguera

invisible is a remarkable book which combines cutting-edge dental techniques with the production values of the finest art books. Written by two of the world's pre-eminent aesthetic dentists, invisible describes and demonstrates numerous clinical cases with the aid of over 1,750 outstanding clinical pictures. The book provides a consistent, step by step approach with a focus on treatment planning, pre-treatment, material selection, preparation and impression technique, as well as laboratory procedure and adhesive insertion. This book includes the newest restorative approaches and will serve as an important guide for both dentists and dental technicians working in the field of aesthetic dentistry. The huge number of illustrations and incredible production quality means this is a book which will also be of immense practical value to the dentist guiding his patient through their course of treatment.
