The Future of Work: Super-exploitation and Social Precariousness in the 21st Century (Studies in Critical Social Sciences) Adrián Sotelo Valencia

In this wide-ranging analysis of the processes, mutations and trends currently characterizing the world of work, Adrián Sotelo V. offers important new insights into the ways these changes are bound up within the deep contradictions of a global capitalist system plagued by systemic crisis, and roots the paradigmatic shifts in social and labor relations in Neoliberalism's pro-business policies.
