Mineral-Man and the Uncatchable Crook T W Heinen

It is a usual day in Surface City, but Mineral-Man is not up to his usual superhero work. When his plans are rudely interrupted by a mischievous thief, Mineral-Man must decide between helping his friends and pursuing the uncatchable crook. This short adventure story is accompanied by black and white illustrations. It is written for a middle school reading level but offers fun for all ages and is excellent for reading aloud as a family.
