B-Boy to Man: Freshman (Volume 1) Corey Lamar Tanksley

College is a coming of age where life introduces you to: pain, pleasure, failure, achievement, love, humor and enlightenment all rolled up in one. The situation is no different at McNair University where the lives of two students cross paths with one unique professor to create a life changing experience for them all. Chase Douglass, high on masculinity but low on maturity steps foot on the campus of McNair University unprepared and drunk on confidence. His only plan is to major in women and the power of sex. Camara Truth, a brilliant, beautiful vixen inexperienced in the ways of love and teetering on the brink of innocence and womanhood. On the campus of McNair University she will learn more than just academics but also the power that her beauty holds. Professor King, a street-connected academic, who has earned his PhD the hard way. Hailing from the Hanover Projects of Rochester, NY Archibald King was able to make the necessary changes to transition from prisoner 72A2437 to Professor King. Together they formulate the recipe for a unique and chaotic form of higher learning. What they fail to realize is change is coming whether they are ready or not. Find out what happens on McNair University as their lives collide to help a B-Boy transition into a man Tanksley has penned a gripping coming of age story about choices, consequences, growth, humility and redemption steeped in the unapologetic language of Hip Hop. B-BOY TO MAN: FRESHMEN. This is Volume 1.0 in a four book series.
