Book Summary: In Bella's Magical Belly Button, Bella is a teenager who takes us back to the day when she had an operation that made her a special belly button. Her journey includes pre-op tests, the operation, and her recovery experiences. She shares her secrets on how to overcome the emotional challenges she faces as well as how the events make her into a stronger person. The compilation of feelings and experiences from children born with urological conditions were used to create this story.
