Scrapbooking is more than just sticking and fastening ribbons and buttons or clipping on and putting together photographs and love poems. Scrapbooking marks out special life events. Each page commits to memory people and places in your life you want to cherish. Each page honors all your significant pursuits and undertakings so that they become unforgettable. Each page somehow tells your story-- of love and heartbreak, of like and dislike, of being sorry or being thankful. Each page is a part of you because you gathered every photo and item, you thought of every pattern and trimming ... it was you who cut and glued, embossed and frayed, painted and tarnished to put all the bits and pieces together. Scrapbooking is an enjoyable and very worthwhile activity that becomes a personal representation of you or someone close to your heart. A labor of love, they say. This book covers all the details of scrapbooking -- from the inside content to the outside cover. These scrapbooking techniques and tools will teach you to make flowers, paint fabrics, style ribbons and decorate charms to store treasured photos and precious keepsakes for gift-giving or to save and uphold cherished memories for life.
